DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' Response to Office Action, received 5 June 2009, is acknowledged. Claims 1, 2, 3, 5 and 17 have been amended. Claims 28-45 have been cancelled.
2. Applicants' Supplemental Response to Office Action, received 19 June 2009, is acknowledged. Claim 3 has been amended.
3. Claims 1-12, 14-18, 27 and 46-50 are pending and under consideration.

Rejections Withdrawn

4. The rejection of claims 1-3 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for "and", is withdrawn in light of the amendment of the claims.
5. The rejection of claims 1-3 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for "said polypeptide", is withdrawn in light of the amendment of the claims.
6. The rejection of claims 1, 2, 4-12, 14-18, 27 and 46-50 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for "comprises", is withdrawn in light of the amendment of the claims.
7. The rejection of claims 1-12, 14-18, 27 and 46-50 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for "immunologically equivalent" is withdrawn in light of applicants' arguments and statement that "immunologically equivalent" means that both polypeptide fragments must satisfy the same property selected from properties i-viii as listed on page 13, lines 1-3 of the specification.

Double Patenting

8. Claim 12 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 1. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Claim 12 recites: A substantially pure polypeptide according to claim 1 for use as a pharmaceutical.

The recital of "for use as a pharmaceutical" is merely an intended use and places no patentability to the claim. Thus, claim 12 is a substantial duplicate of claim 1.

Conclusion

9. Claim 12 is objected to.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
